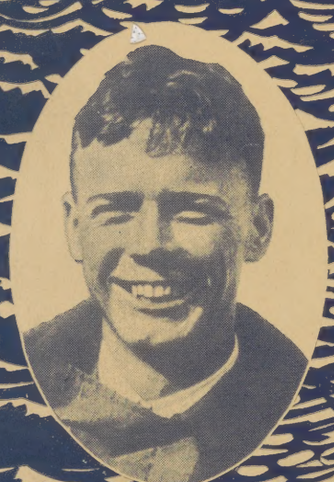
LINDBERGH

The HERO of OUR HEART

By W.J. Weidenhof & A. Koplovitz

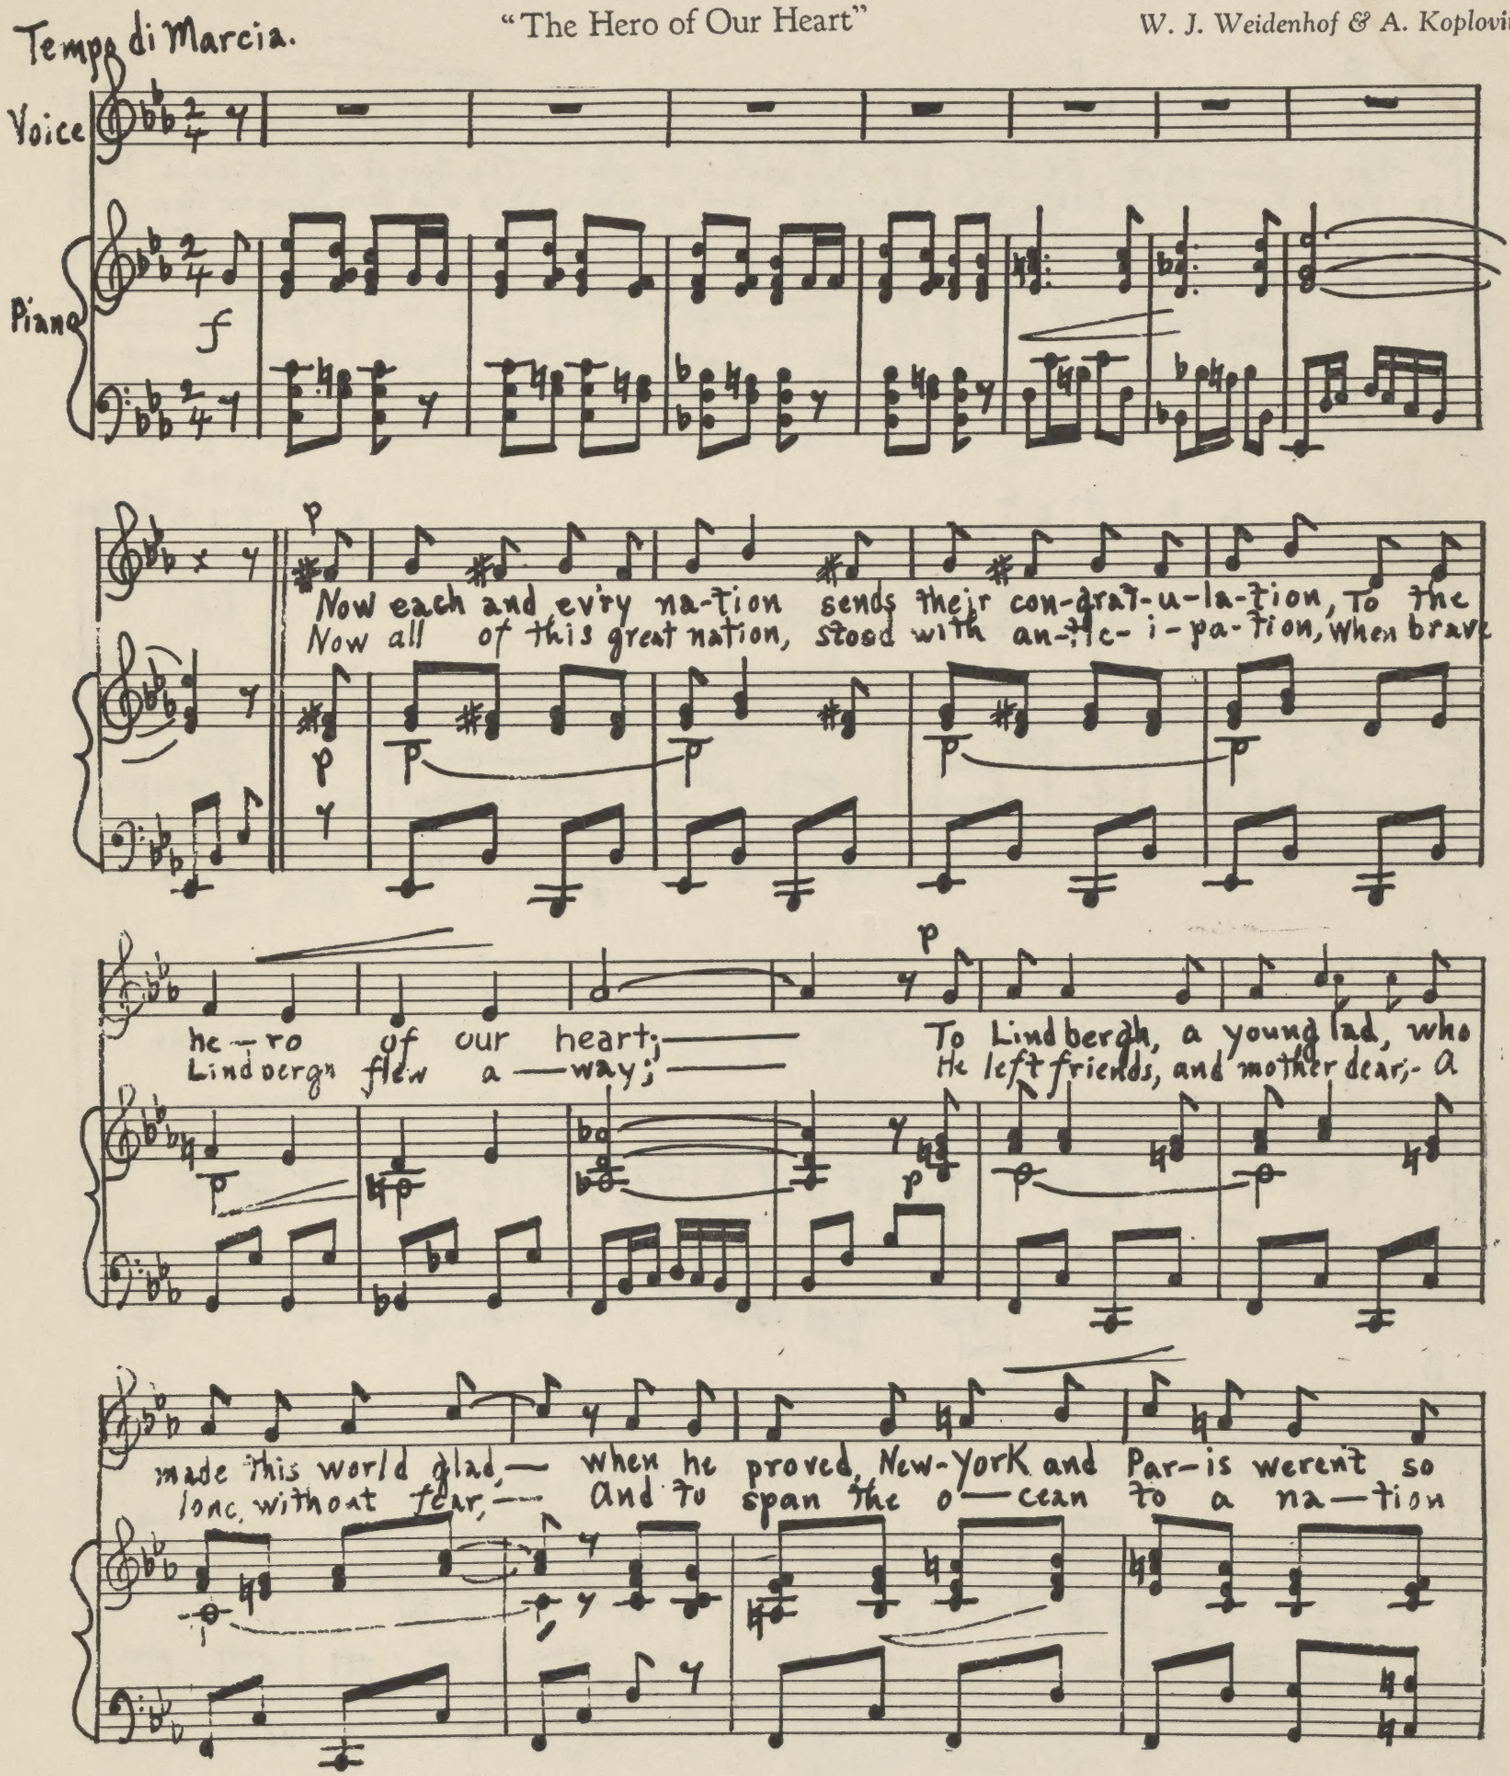


© K. & W. Music Publishers ~ 2328 Green St., Harrisburg, Pa.

"LINDBERGH"

"The Hero of Our Heart"

Words and Music by
W. J. Weidenhof & A. Koplovitz



Tempo di Marcia.
Voice
Piano
f
p
Now each and evry na-tion sends their con-grat-u-la-tion, To the he—ro of our heart;
Now all of this great nation, stood with an-tic- i-pa-tion, When brave Lindbergh flew a—way;
To Lindbergh, a young lad, who He left friends, and mother dear;- A made this world glad— when he proved, New-York and Par-is weren't so long, without fear,— And to span the o—cean to a na—tion

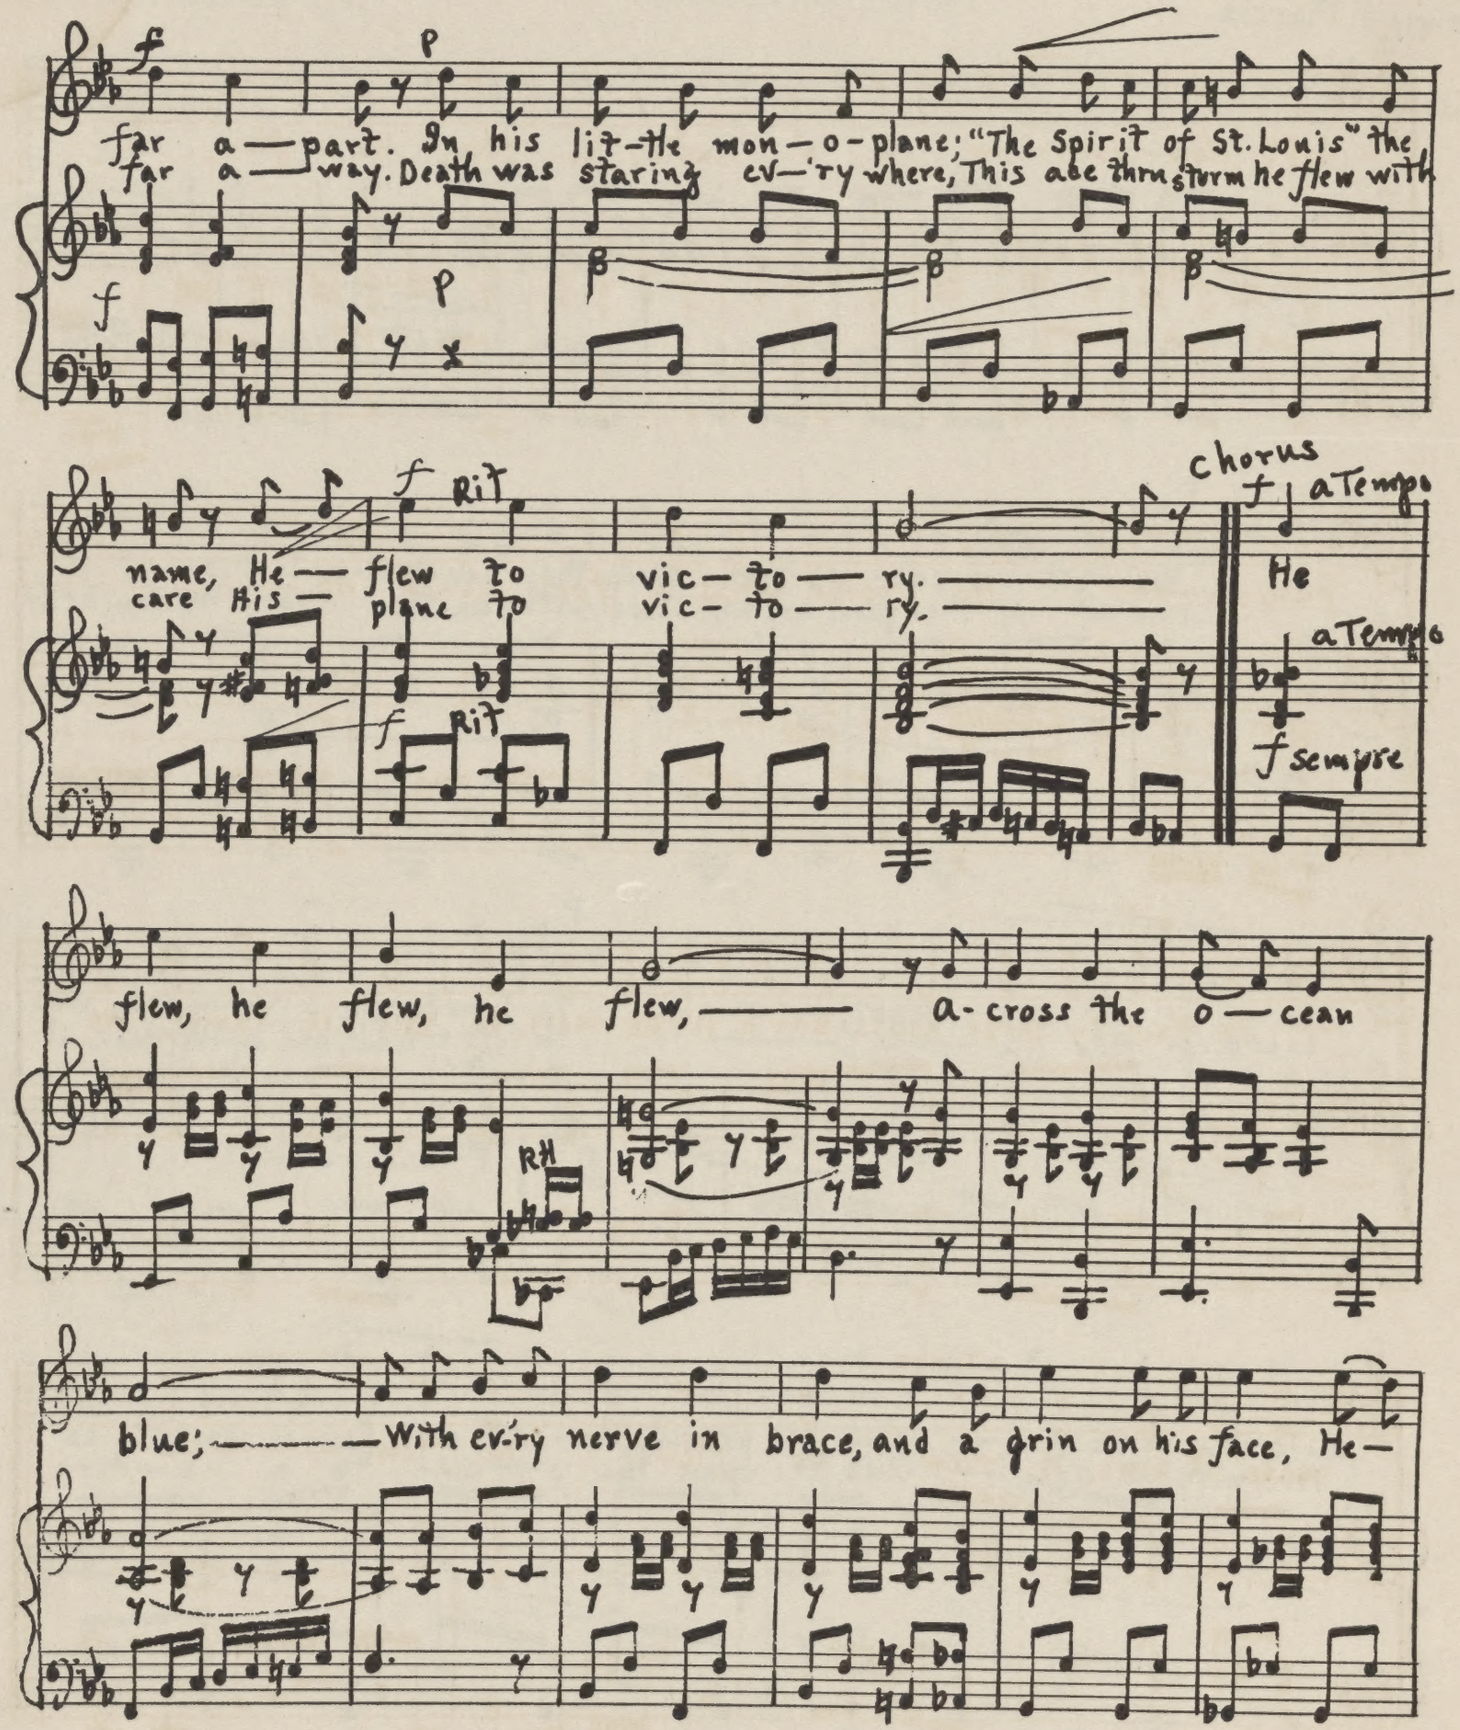
Copyright, 1927
by
K. & W., Music Publishers

K. & W., Music Publishers
2328 Green Street
Harrisburg, Pa.



f
p far a — part. In his lit-tle mon — o - plane; "The Spirit of St. Louis" the far a — way. Death was staring ev — 'ry where, This ace thru storm he flew with f
p name, He — flew to vic — to — ry.
care His — plane to vic — to — ry.
f Rit
f Rit
chorus
f a Tempo
He
a Tempo
f sempre
flew, he flew, he flew, — a - cross the o — cean RH blue; — With ev-'ry nerve in brace, and a grin on his face, He — left New-York — in a haste; He flew, he — flew, he flew, — He proved what a fool could do. — Rit

— In thir-ty three hours and a little more, So this is Par-is, we Rit
a Tempo
made it sure. He flew, he flew, he flew. —
a Tempo

Published by

K. & W., Music Publishers

2328 Green Street

Harrisburg, Pa.

1927